"We at The Special Forces Charitable Trust (SFCT) are honored and humbled by the generosity of Cumulus Media, Fontanel and all of the artist performing. Their willingness to dedicate all ticket proceeds from this special annual Memorial Day celebration to Green Berets exemplifies their patriotic spirit." stated David T. Guernsey, Jr., Executive Director of the SFCT. "The United States Army Special Forces (Green Berets) are a special breed: highly trained, fiercely proud and quietly effective. Known as the "quiet professionals" they are the unsung heroes of the past and the diplomatic warriors in today's war on terror. They have endured the highest casualty rate of all Special Operations Forces. In addition to the commitments in Afghanistan and Iraq, Special Forces are deployed in over 45 countries worldwide. With 100% of all ticket and VIP box revenue donated to SFCT, these proceeds will go a long way in allowing us to provide meaningful and sustainable programs and vital assistance to these brave soldiers and their families in the areas of Family and Community Support, Education and Motivation, as well as Veterans and Heritage assistance."

"When we first began discussions with Fontanel about partnering for a Memorial Day country music festival to benefit SFCT, everyone at Cumulus Media was immediately on board and Camp NASH was born," stated Tommy Page, Senior Vice President, Brand Partnerships and NASH, for Cumulus Media. "Our ability to reach a broad base of listeners nationwide and in Middle Tennessee through our popular Nashville radio stations and NASH country programming will allow us to build great awareness of the event. We will heavily promote Camp NASH to attract country music lovers for a day of great music and fun, while honoring the Special Forces Community and their families, and supporting a most worthy cause."
